

Safety instruction / brief information for external persons

Please strictly follow the orders and instructions of your coordinator / contact person, the safety expert and the plant security. Please also note the following guidelines.

External persons must

- follow the instructions of the company for the purpose of accident prevention
- familiarize yourself with emergency facilities, e.g. escape and rescue plans, first aid - facilities
- report workplace accidents to the coordinator /contact person for documentation
- move to emergency collection point in case of alarm/evacuation.

Park vehicle only in designated parking areas. Top speed of 10 km/h.

In case of emergency, please contact your coordinator/contact person or another member of the Veritas Group.

Escape routes, please follow signs; do not block escape routes.

Emergency collection point: see escape and rescue plan.

Do not block the fire service access.

Keep in mind the location fire extinguisher; do not block fire extinguishers.

Photographing, filming, sound recording prohibited. Partial areas are under video surveillance.

Alcohol and drug prohibition, smoking only in designated smoking areas outdoors.

Do not eat or drink (drinks are only allowed in closable bottles).

Safety instruction / brief information for external persons

Beware in factory buildings and on the premises.

Access to production only after consultation with coordinator/contact person.

Implant carriers require the explicit consent of the coordinator/contact person before entering the manufacturing process.

Do not touch any products or machines.

Duty of wearing in production and logistics (outside the marked routes).

Hearing protection in the noise areas.

Duty of wearing in designated areas.

Access authorization only with appropriate equipment.

Any information remains the intellectual property of Veritas and may not be disclosed to third parties.

We gladly accept your ideas for optimizations.

The Veritas Group has a certified quality, occupational safety and environment management system.

Sustainability is important in the Veritas Group. See also our company policy.

Please return this information card at the end of your visit. Thank you.

Safety instruction / brief information for external persons

Please strictly follow the orders and instructions of your coordinator / contact person, the safety expert and the plant security. Please also note the following guidelines.

External persons must

- follow the instructions of the company for the purpose of accident prevention
- familiarize yourself with emergency facilities, e.g. escape and rescue plans, first aid - facilities
- report workplace accidents to the coordinator /contact person for documentation
- move to emergency collection point in case of alarm/evacuation.

Park vehicle only in designated parking areas. Top speed of 10 km/h.

In case of emergency, please contact your coordinator/contact person or another member of the Veritas Group.

Escape routes, please follow signs; do not block escape routes.

Emergency collection point: see escape and rescue plan.

Do not block the fire service access.

Keep in mind the location fire extinguisher; do not block fire extinguishers.

Photographing, filming, sound recording prohibited. Partial areas are under video surveillance.

Alcohol and drug prohibition, smoking only in designated smoking areas outdoors.

Do not eat or drink (drinks are only allowed in closable bottles).

Safety instruction / brief information for external persons

Beware in factory buildings and on the premises.

Access to production only after consultation with coordinator/contact person.

Implant carriers require the explicit consent of the coordinator/contact person before entering the manufacturing process.

Do not touch any products or machines.

Duty of wearing in production / logistics (outside the marked routes).

Hearing protection in the noise area.

Duty of wearing in designated areas.

Access authorization only with appropriate equipment.

Any information remains the intellectual property of Veritas and may not be disclosed to third parties.

We gladly accept your ideas for optimizations.

The Veritas Group has a certified quality, occupational safety and environment management system.

Sustainability is important in the Veritas Group. See also our company policy.

Please return this information card at the end of your visit. Thank you.